

New Chapter | Reviews

Flaskehalsen | MORTEN WAMSLER | 97 pts

“This is Grüner Veltliner on a whole new level. Created by the great Lenz Moser, this is an insanely beautiful Grüner Veltliner, which naturally also places itself in the heavy price range. But it's so elegant, structured, fresh and balanced that you can't say the least about the pricing. This is Grüner Veltliner, which hits both the connoisseur and those who just want an exceptional, yet easily understandable glass of royal white wine.”

Ekstra Bladet | THOMAS RYDBERG | 95 pts

“BEST WINE OF THE WEEK - New super wine from Markus Huber and Lenz Moser. Crisp and acidic with a nicely balanced taste of apple, flint, white pepper and vanilla. Convincingly beautiful and exciting wine with a long, crisp and lingering finish.”

Mad & Monopolet | MAD SCHYTTE | 95 pts

"New Chapter" and new standards perhaps? Particularly excellent Gruener Veltliner. On the nose, notes of grapefruit, citrus, mandarin, vanilla and a slight hint of pepper. The wine is dry, acidic, complex with a full body and creamy taste of delicate fruit, where the work has been done well to ensure that the dish does not take over, but instead creates the perfect balance.”

James Suckling | STUART PIGOTT | 94 pts

"This very expressive Gruener Veltliner has so much to say for itself, but is so easy to understand. The cornucopia of yellow grapefruit, Amalfi lemon and white peach aromas pull you in and, with aeration, notes of lemon balm and spring meadow make it even more enticing. Stunning balance of brilliant fruit, discreet creaminess and mineral acidity on the precisely contoured, medium-bodied palate. Long, very pure finish.”

Falstaff | ULRICH SAUTTER & PETER MOSER | 94 pts

“Light greenish yellow with silver reflections. There is an undertone of fresh meadow herbs to the aromas of Golden Delicious apple, touches of mango, tangerine zest and a mineral touch. Juicy and elegant on the palate, with notes of ripe stone fruit, it is full-bodied without being opulent, with fine, lively acidity, good length and a slightly saline finish. An ideal representative of the variety.”

Houlbergs | ULRIK HOULBERG | 94-97 pts (6/7)

"it is probably one of the best white wines we have tasted in a long time. WAUW what a scent... really soft, round and totally Chardonnay in style with light nuts, butter, vanilla, elderberry, gooseberry and dried flowers. May remind a bit of limed Chablis, but at the same time has an aroma of concentrated green herbs, brownie dough, cloves..."

WineWherever | RASMUS CHRISTENSEN | 94 pts

"First vintage of a joint venture between Lenz Moser and Markus Huber. Here the aim was to create a premium Grüner Veltliner, and they have not missed the target. Completely dry with a chalky minerality, energetic acidity and a long and complex taste of plum peel, wormwood, Danish tart, red apples and gentle tannins. The wine's richness of detail is particularly convincing and testifies to a serious wine."